- Funding Trend: Funding has remained mostly steady since 2022, with a jump in 2023.
- Strategic Goal Trends: NIH CC and ODSS have consistently partnered to develop data infrastructure, with previous investments in advanced tools, the data resource ecosystem, and stewardship.

Co-funding Highlights

- ODSS provided $60,000 to NIH CC to support the High-Value Datasets (HVD) program project: Cloud-Driven Innovations in Statistical Modeling and Predictive Analytics. This funding supports the goal area — data infrastructure development.

¹ ODSS, in collaboration with OD, CIT, NHLBI, and NIA, developed an NIH community pilot LLM chatbot called ChIRP. ChIRP is funded by ODSS and OIR, aiming to create a secure environment for NIH staff to safely explore how generative AI technologies. As of November 2025, ChIRP had 863 active users.

² To enhance NIH workforce training, ODSS collaborates with NLM to fund and manage the NIH Coursera Program that offers a limited number of free Coursera licenses to NIH staff. Over the course of FY25, there were a total of 1388 Coursera users, covering all 27 ICs. Please note that Coursera paused on 9/6/2025 due to contract processing delay but will restart as soon as acquisition is processed in the new fiscal year.
